Friday Evening January 13, 2006

The language of the temple is prayer. Those who intend to press on in the Spirit, must be willing to let go of the unwholesome language that grieves the Holy Spirit, weakens us in heart faith, and hinders us in our growth in the knowledge of God and His Son.

Ephesians 4:29-30

²⁹ Let no unwholesome word proceed from your mouth, but only such a word as is good for edification according to the need of the moment, so that it will give grace to those who hear.

³⁰ Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

THE LANGUAGE OF THE TEMPLE

Psalms 34:11-22

¹¹ Come, you children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

¹² Who is the man who desires life And loves length of days that he may see good?

¹³ Keep your tongue from evil And your lips from speaking deceit.

¹⁴ Depart from evil and do good; Seek peace and pursue it.

¹⁵ The eyes of the LORD are toward the righteous And His ears are open to their cry.

¹⁶ The face of the LORD is against evildoers, To cut off the memory of them from the earth.

¹⁷ The righteous cry, and the LORD hears And delivers them out of all their troubles.

¹⁸ The LORD is near to the brokenhearted And saves those who are crushed in spirit.

¹⁹ Many are the afflictions of the righteous, But the LORD delivers him out of them all.

²⁰ He keeps all his bones, Not one of them is broken.

²¹ Evil shall slay the wicked, And those who hate the righteous will be condemned.

²² The LORD redeems the soul of His servants, And none of those who take refuge in Him will be condemned.

The journey into His presence—the spiritual journey into the place of confidence before God, requires the fear of the Lord. Although those who have not learned the fear of the Lord, may experience times of refreshing from His presence, through repentance (Acts 3:19-21): To behold His face, they must be willing to learn the fear of the Lord. All disciples must learn this language of the temple.
